Mastering the Craft

Become a virtuoso of verse by delving into the intricacies of poetic forms. Understand the principles of meter, rhyme, and stanzaic structure. Explore the power of imagery, symbolism, and metaphor, unlocking the tools to craft your own poetic creations.

Types of Poetry

Get creative and try all of these poetry styles.

Haiku: a traditional Japanese style with 5 syllables in the first line, 7 in the second, and 5 in the third

Sonnet: a 14 line poem often about love, usually rhymed

Free Verse: without a consistent rhyme scheme or meter, but rather thoughts and ideas painted with words

Limerick: a 5-line poem about something humorous or entertaining, with an AABBA rhyme

Ballad: narrative verse that tells a story, often with rhymes between the 1st and 3rd lines and 2nd and 4th lines

Elegy: a poem of any type about death or grief

Cinquain: a 5-line poem similar to the haiku

Acrostic poem: spells a word or name with the first letter of each line
