What is Fiqh?

Fiqh is the Islamic jurisprudence that governs the daily lives of Muslims. It is based on the Quran, the Sunnah (the teachings and practices of the Prophet Muhammad), and the consensus of the Muslim community. Fiqh covers a wide range of topics, including:

- Prayer
- Fasting

- Hajj (pilgrimage to Mecca)
- Zakat (charity)
- Marriage
- Divorce
- Inheritance
- Business
- Ethics

What are Manners?

Manners are the outward expressions of a person's inner character. They include:

- Respect
- Kindness
- Honesty
- Humility
- Modesty
- Generosity
- Forgiveness
- Patience
- Gratitude

Why are Fiqh and Manners Important?

Fiqh and manners are important because they help Muslims to live their lives in accordance with the teachings of Islam. They provide guidance on how to worship God, interact with others, and conduct themselves in all aspects of life. By following the principles of fiqh and manners, Muslims can strive to become better Muslims and better human beings.
