Thanksgiving is a time for family, friends, and food. It's also a time to reflect on all the things we're grateful for. This Thanksgiving-themed story is perfect for beginning readers. It features simple text and sight words, making it easy for kids to follow along. The story also includes a fun activity page at the end, where kids can practice their new sight words.

The Story

Once upon a time, there was a little turkey named Tom. Tom lived on a farm with his family. He had a mom, a dad, and a sister. Tom also had a lot of friends. He loved to play with his friends and gobble up corn.

One day, Tom was playing with his friends when he saw a big, red truck. The truck was filled with pumpkins. Tom had never seen so many pumpkins before. He was so excited, he started to gobble them up.

Tom's mom saw him gobbling up the pumpkins and she said, "Tom, stop gobbling up the pumpkins. Those pumpkins are for Thanksgiving dinner." Tom was sad, but he stopped gobbling up the pumpkins.

On Thanksgiving Day, Tom and his family had a big Thanksgiving dinner. They ate turkey, stuffing, mashed potatoes, and pumpkin pie. Tom was so happy to be with his family and to eat all the delicious food.

The Activity Page

After reading the story, kids can practice their sight words by completing the activity page. The activity page includes a word bank of the sight words used in the story. Kids can use the word bank to help them fill in the blanks in the sentences.

The activity page is a great way for kids to practice their sight words and to improve their reading skills. It's also a fun way to learn about Thanksgiving.
